As we approach Election Day 2008, the New York Democratic Lawyers Council is recruiting, training and organizing for the biggest election protection operation we've ever undertaken. Our challenges this cycle include not only the effort to support the Obama campaign where ever they ask us to help around the country, but also assisting our New York Democratic Congressional Representatives and Candidates in targeted districts and to support Democratic State Senators and Candidates in our drive to take a Democratic majority to the State Senate this cycle. Our goals are attainable, but we need your help.

Come join us for scintillating conversation and inspiring oratory when we kick off our 2008 Campaign!

Where your money will go:

- $125 buys an updated list of all New York State Attorneys, to identify and recruit Democratic lawyers for statewide NYDLC Election Protection Program.
- $ 250 pays for production of Voting Rights Instruction Manuals for 125 Election Monitors -- enough to cover every polling place in Yonkers.
- $500 pays for an Election Monitor Training Workshop outside the NYC metro area.
- $1,000 pays for one month's access to Westlaw Legal Database for NYDLC to monitor voting rights legislation and case law ($12,000 for a year's access).
- $2,800 pays to send an experienced boiler room attorney to spend ten days recruiting, training and managing lawyers and election monitors in one of 9 targeted Congressional Districts in New York State.
- $6,000 pays for summer interns to assist NYDLC with legal research, political organizing and voting rights advocacy.
- $25,000 pays for a full-time NYDLC Program Administrator for July through November 2008 to supervise the statewide Election Protection Program.
